

Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Muhammad Amin Andrabi

Personal Details

Name: Prof. Muhammad Amin Andrabi

Born: 1940, Srinagar, Kashmir

Died: 30 December 2001

Academic Qualifications

- Ph.D. (Urdu), University of Kashmir. Dissertation supervised by Aal-e-Ahmad Suroor.

Academic & Professional Appointments

- Teacher, Islamia College of Science and Commerce, Srinagar (early career).
- Professor, University of Kashmir (joined 1980).
- Director (Head), Iqbal Institute of Culture & Philosophy, University of Kashmir (mid-1980s until his death).

Research Interests & Scholarly Focus

Urdu literature and criticism; Iqbaliyat (studies on Allama Muhammad Iqbal); comparative religion and Islamic philosophy.

Selected Publications

- Iqbal ka Fun (Srinagar: Iqbal Institute, Kashmir University, 1998). (Listed in Iqbal Cyber Library)
- Numerous articles in literary journals; contributed to journals of Iqbal studies and Islamic studies (posthumous articles and commemorative volumes include his work).

Awards & Honours

- Recipient of Sahayati Award and Ghalib Award (mentioned in retrospectives and tributes).

Legacy & Commemoration

Prof. Andrabi is remembered as an authority on Urdu literature and Iqbaliyat; the University of Kashmir organises lectures and seminars in his memory. (Obituaries and commemorations published in Dawn, The Milli Gazette, Kashmir Life and University notices.)

Selected References (sources consulted)

1. "Muhammed Amin Andrabi" — Wikipedia.
2. "Prof Andrabi passes away" — Dawn (31 Dec 2001).
3. Iqbal Institute / Islamic Studies Journal PDFs — University of Kashmir publications.
4. Iqbal Cyber Library listing for "Iqbal ka Fun" (1998).
5. Tributes and retrospectives: Kashmir Life, Kashmir Observer, The Milli Gazette, Greater Kashmir.