The Assistant Registrar (Research) was also present.

At the outset, Dean Research welcomed the members and requested Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor for his valuable introductory remarks. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor desired that a Committee should be constituted for redefining domain of research in various Research Centres such as Centre for Shaikh ul-Aalam Studies and Iqbal Institute of Culture and Philosophy. The Committee shall propose a suitable name for the School under which these Centres will continue their research work. Besides, process for academic audit of the Research Centres should be started at the earliest. It was clarified that scholars should be admitted for research programmes only in the disciplines in which supervisor/supervisors are available in the Research Centre.

Subsequently agenda was taken up for discussion.
